Hopkinsville Tobacco Market,

(Reported by J. H. Eggleton, of Cummings & Eggleton Co., (incorporated.) buyor on order of dealer in and handler of leaf tobacco.)

June 22, '98 .- The offerings this week were very large, and composed of a great deal of common, medium and nondescript tobacco, for which there was but little demand, hence rejections were heavy. There was occasionally hogsheads of good leaf, which sold at satisfactory prices. With the exception of the good leaf and lugs, previous prices were lower than last week.

For some unknown cause a great many of the buyers did not have town to-day. their usual orders for the several grades of Bremen and Italian styles. The Austrian, Frenchman and Snuffmen, were all the gothis week.

Weather conditions since last re- city this morning on business. port have been all that could be expected, and the early setting is doing well. The last season of the 17, 18 and 19th enabled the farmers to finish setting and re-setting.
